PENTECOSTAL ASSEMBLIES OF THE WORLD NINTH EPISCOPAL DIOCESE

Bishop G. F. Austin, Diocesan
Apostolic Team Ministry (ATM) Prayer Line
“Save the Family. Save the Church.”

We Welcome You to join the PAW Apostolic Team Ministry Prayer Line as we gather in prayer four times each day to seek salvation, healing, guidance, peace, and the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. No matter what you are facing, God still hears and answers prayer in the name of Jesus!

To join us in any of our Prayer Watches, dial 1 (339) 209-6552 before prayer begins and follow the instructions of the greeter or host to share a brief prayer request or praise report and also join in the praise celebration/corporate worship. Due to the need to give others the opportunity to share their prayer requests and praise reports, I request that we Keep all prayer requests and praise reports short and simple. Please do not engage in back and forth prolong greetings, gesturing, and joking. Keep your communication on the prayer line spiritual and prayerful at all times!

Prayer Watches Four Times Every Day (CST)

12:00 a.m. (Midnight): Prayers of spiritual warfare and for protection from forces of evil and darkness as the people of God rest and sleep throughout the night.

6:00 a.m. (Morning): Prayers for strength, direction, preparation, and a fresh start for the day's work, school, and ministry.

12:00 p.m. (Noon): Prayers for strength and power so that His righteousness will shine as bright as the noonday sun in our lives.

6:00 p.m. (Evening): Prayers of reflection and thanksgiving for the day with repentance, rest, and restoration.

Prayer Times and platforms may be adjusted as directed by the Diocesan under the leadership of the Holy Ghost with or without notice.

Prayer Line Etiquette: Dos, Don'ts, and Good Behavior

- Participate with respect, with focus on prayer, and with consideration for everyone on the line.
- Help maintain the sanctity of prayer and a peaceful, meaningful experience by always following these instructions.
- Always remember that the prayer line is reserved exclusively for prayer.
- It is not a social talk show or a testimony service.
- Keep prayer requests, praise reports, and greetings friendly and brief.
- Avoid back-and-forth conversation that prolongs the prayer watch.
- Respect God and all participants on the prayer line.

- Avoid negative, back, disruptive, or ungodly words and behavior

- Avoid negative, harsh, disruptive, or ungodly words and behavior.
- Social conversation, humor, politics, joking, gestures, and unapproved announcements are not permitted.
- Never share personal and private prayer information with anyone off the prayer line.
- After you have been welcomed and greeted, please keep your line muted unless instructed by the Greeter/Host.
- Use words that glorify, honor, praise, and worship God.
- Speak with respect, kindness, and encouragement toward others.
- Follow the K.I.S.S. Principle: Keep requests and prayers short and simple.
- Do not use harsh, negative, critical, offensive, or disruptive language or behavior.
- Never try to overtake or overpower the prayer leader and corporate worship leader.
- Always allow the leader to end and close the prayer/worship in the name of Jesus.
- Remember that respectful speech and behavior help create a successful prayer experience for all participants.
- Handle personal prayer requests with discretion and faithfulness.
- Do not share personal names or prayer requests in violation of privacy laws.
- Never submit someone's prayer request without their permission.
- Protecting confidentiality helps create a safe and trusted place for prayer.
- Never promise to pray for someone and fail to do so.
- Prayer requests involving children or third parties must comply with COPPA, and underage children must be supervised by a parent or guardian.

Prayer Line Format and Roles

All facilitators and volunteers should be present and prepared at least 30 minutes before prayer begins with their assigned prayer watch.

Coordinator: All vacancies for the assigned prayer watch will be filled and given to the Host by the Coordinator no later than 5 minutes before prayer starts.

Greeter/Host: Offers a brief welcome, shares pre-approved brief announcements, welcomes each caller with the opportunity to share a brief prayer request or praise report, keeps the prayer open to other callers, and oversees the flow of the prayer watch.

Host: Presents the Scripture Reader for one verse of Scripture.

Scripture Reader: Reads one verse of Scripture without exhortation or comment.

Before prayer begins: The Host will announce the focus for this Prayer Watch and shares any special prayer requests, praise reports, or answered prayers submitted by callers during the watch to refresh and remind all to prayer in agreement with them in the name of Jesus. The Prayer Leader is not required to write them down each name and each detail, but to simply acknowledge them in prayer to the best of his/her ability. Praying for each request and celebrating answered prayers is our goal and we must seek God to perfect it!

The Prayer Leader then leads prayer and corporate worship for 12 minutes

The Prayer Leader then leads prayer and corporate worship for 12 minutes, covering all requests and praise reports in the name of Jesus.

Word of Encouragement Speaker: Provides up to three minutes of positive encouragement without teaching, preaching, prophesying, rebuking, or chastening.

Diocesan or Designate: Concludes the prayer watch with a brief final word, instructions, and closing in the name of Jesus.

System Monitor: May mute the line to reduce background noise, but should not mute the Greeter, Host, Director, or Diocesan. If the prayer closing is not clearly heard in the name of Jesus, the System Monitor should do so before muting the line.

All volunteers, participants, and facilitators are requested to register their contact information to receive the monthly schedule, updated guidelines, and instructions.

All volunteers, participants, and facilitators are also requested to read and agree to follow all guidelines and instructions before serving on the ATM Prayer Line.

For more information and how to register to serve or volunteer, contact Elder James Voltz, Jr. by email at: jvoltz.jvj@gmail.com
