ATM Prayer Line Etiquette and Guidelines

Welcome to the Apostolic Team Ministries (ATM) Prayer Line, a ministry of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World Ninth Episcopal Diocese of Alabama under the leadership of the Diocesan, Bishop G. F. Austin, and Presiding Bishop Theodore L. Brook of the PAW parent body. The PAW 31 days of Special Prayer will be our prayer focus for every watch and every day during this month! The ATM Prayer Line is dedicated to offering supportive prayers with and for all of the needs of all people regardless to race, color, gender, religion, or creed in accordance with the Word, Will and Way of the Lord Jesus Christ our God. Our vision and mission ...

“Save the Family, Save the Church”.

Please feel free to join us four times every day in Prayer @ 12:00 a.m. Midnight, 6:00 a.m. Morning,

*12 p.m. Noonday and 6 p.m. Evening (CST) Dial: 1(605) 475-4700 - Pin: 1018981#

Our Prayer Points

The ATM Prayer Line is open at least 30 minutes before each Prayer Watch begins to receive your Praise Report or Prayer Request. To join us in prayer, dial When the line is answered with a greeting by the Greeter/Host, with a simple and brief welcome. Please do not engage in any back-and-forth conversations, and greetings. please follow the instructions given by the Greeter/Host. Be sure to keep your phone muted at all times until requested to unmute.

Mondays - Prayers focus on Family

Wednesday - Fasting & Prayer - Prayers led by PAW and others

Special Prayer Events - 72 Hours of Fasting and Intercessory Prayer - 4 times each year and others as announced. Special Prayer & Fasting as announced by the PAW.

Our Prayer Watches

12:00 Midnight - Prayer of Spiritual Warfare, Devine Releasements, and Protection from Satan's highlighted events of darkness and evil as the people of God rest and sleep.

6:00 Morning - Prayers of declaring and speaking preparing and equipping the people of God for daily work and ministry that will shine.

12:00 Midday - Prayers of interceding for others and praying against destruction that stalks at noon time. We also pray that we do not to be led into any temptation, trap, or snare of the enemy, but as the sun is at its fullest and brightest, and so we pray that our lives will be likewise.

6:00 Evening - Prayers of breaking bread in covenant agreement and thanking God's for His daily blessings over the fruits of lives, families, homes, churches, schools, workplaces, communities, and the world.

Prayer Line Etiquette and Code of Conduct

The ATM Prayer Line is dedicated to God for Positive and Supportive Prayer with and for the requests, needs and concerns of others and to worship, celebrate and praise God together for their praise reports and to speak brief words of hope, inspiration, and encouragement.

Regardless of what discernment or feeling we may have about a person's situation, we are all required to abide by the ATM Prayer Line's etiquette, guidelines, code of conduct, confidentiality and agreement to never say or do anything that will be embarrassing, offensive, hurtful, or negative at any time to others on or off the prayer line, unless it is something we are required by law to report like criminal activities, child abuse or suicidal intentions.

We are required to keep the prayer line dedicated to prayer and prayer only at all times and to eliminate any and all distractions, background noise, carnal expressions, joking, jesting, negative and fleshly remarks, and behaviors. Let us also eliminate all unnecessary back and forth greetings, testimonies, remarks, commentaries, and salutations while on the prayer line. Prayer is our communication to God and not to people! We do not pray to be seen and heard by others, but by God.

THE COORDINATOR -

The Coordinator of each Prayer Watch will be available to give help to the prayer team as needed and keep a list of hospitalizations and deaths.

THE GREETER

Present 30 Minutes before prayer starts

The greeter is requested to be on the prayer line at least 30 minutes before prayer starts to welcome each caller to the ATM Prayer Line with a simple, warm, and kind greeting and to respond with a simple "God bless you" and to avoid any prolonged back and-forth conversation. Do not try to greet callers by name since we do not know everyone's name. Do not repeat the caller's request or praise report, just say "We will be praying in agreement with you" Allow each caller to share a brief praise report/prayer request. Greeters should not give a long welcome and greetings but rather welcome callers who might be waiting to get on the line. The greeter should encourage everyone to be brief so that others can also share their praise reports and or prayer requests. The greeter will call for brief and limited prayer requests and praise reports will be announced by the announcer before the line gets busy. The Greeter will constantly request all callers and participants to mute and to keep their phone muted while on the line, especially when there is background noise and distractions. The greeter will turn the prayer line over to the host at 15 minutes before prayer starts. If the Host is not present the Greeter will keep the prayer line going and carry out all duties of the Host.

GREETING TEMPLATE:

The Greeter/Host will extend a warm, friendly, and simple welcome to the ATM Prayerline and invite callers to briefly share praise reports or prayer requests. After which, the Greeter/Host will acknowledge to the prayer request or praise report by saying "Amen, we are praying in agreement with you", next caller! Do not engage in any back-and-forth prolonged greeting.

THE HOST

Present 30 Minutes before prayer starts

The host is requested to be on the prayer line at least 30 minutes before prayer starts and be prepared and ready to serve. The host will begin to serve 15 minutes before the prayer starts to confirm all participants are present and ready to serve. If any participant is not present and ready to serve the host will fill in or recruit replacements not later than 10 minutes before prayer starts. The host will not ask more than one time for volunteers and if there are no volunteer the host will fill in for any participant who is not present or ready to serve at the scheduled time. No later than 10 minutes before the prayer starts, the host will briefly give the prayer focus for the watch, brief announcements, and present the participants of the watch. During the last 10 minutes there will be no announcements, only allowing the participants to get on the line to share their praise reports and prayer requests. Each participant is requested to follow the order and time as presented and avoid repeating the introduction and presentation. The scripture reader - one verse without comments, the prayer leader (10-15 minutes) positive and supportive prayer, worship leader and the speaker (3-5 minutes) word of inspiration.

ALL PARTICIPANTS

Present 5 Minutes before prayer starts

Do not seek anyone to fill any vacancy during the last 5minutes time before prayer starts.

If any scheduled participant is not present and ready to serve 5 minutes before prayer starts the host must fill in and serve unless someone has been previously selected.

THE SCRIPTURE READER

Scripture reading – any one verse of scripture without comments from the Host, the Scripture Reader when finished and then turn it into the hands of the Prayer and Worship Leader.

THE PRAYER AND WORSHIP LEADER

The Prayer & Worship Leader will lead 10-15 minutes of positive and supportive prayers for all requests and prayer needs of the people in accordance with the Word of God. All prayers must be address to the Lord Jesus Christ our God and never to the people. Our prayer is our communication with God and not people! After Prayer the Worship Leader will invite everyone to unmute their phones to praise and worship God together for all the praise reports, answered prayers, and blessings. During the worship, we ask everyone to follow the leader, turn your volume down and do not take over or out talk the worship leader.

THE INSPIRATIONAL SPEAKER -

The Inspirational Speaker is requested to only speak 3-5 minutes supportive and positive brief words of faith, encouragement, and hope and not to preach, testify, prophesy, or teach pastoral messages of rebuke, reproof or chastening.

THE DIOCESAN

The Host will present the diocesan for remarks and closing. If the Diocesan is not present, the host will have the final remarks and closing.

PAW AND SPECIAL INVITED GUESTS

Always be professional, warm and hospital to any and all guests. The Diocesan will recognize special guest and PAW Officials and if he is not one the line, the host will fill in for him.

THE CLOSING

Close the prayer on a high note of thanksgiving and worship to God with blessings and greetings to all in the name of JESUS! As previously stated, let us avoid all unnecessary small talks, personal announcements, and private communications, personal acknowledgements after the closing and at all times on the prayer line. Let us glorify God and horrify the Devil! Do not try to make the closing of the prayer a social chat moment with laughing, jesting, and joking! Let us express LOVE to EVERYONE and not merely to our friends and family!
